DESCENDANTS OF BENJAMIN RICE

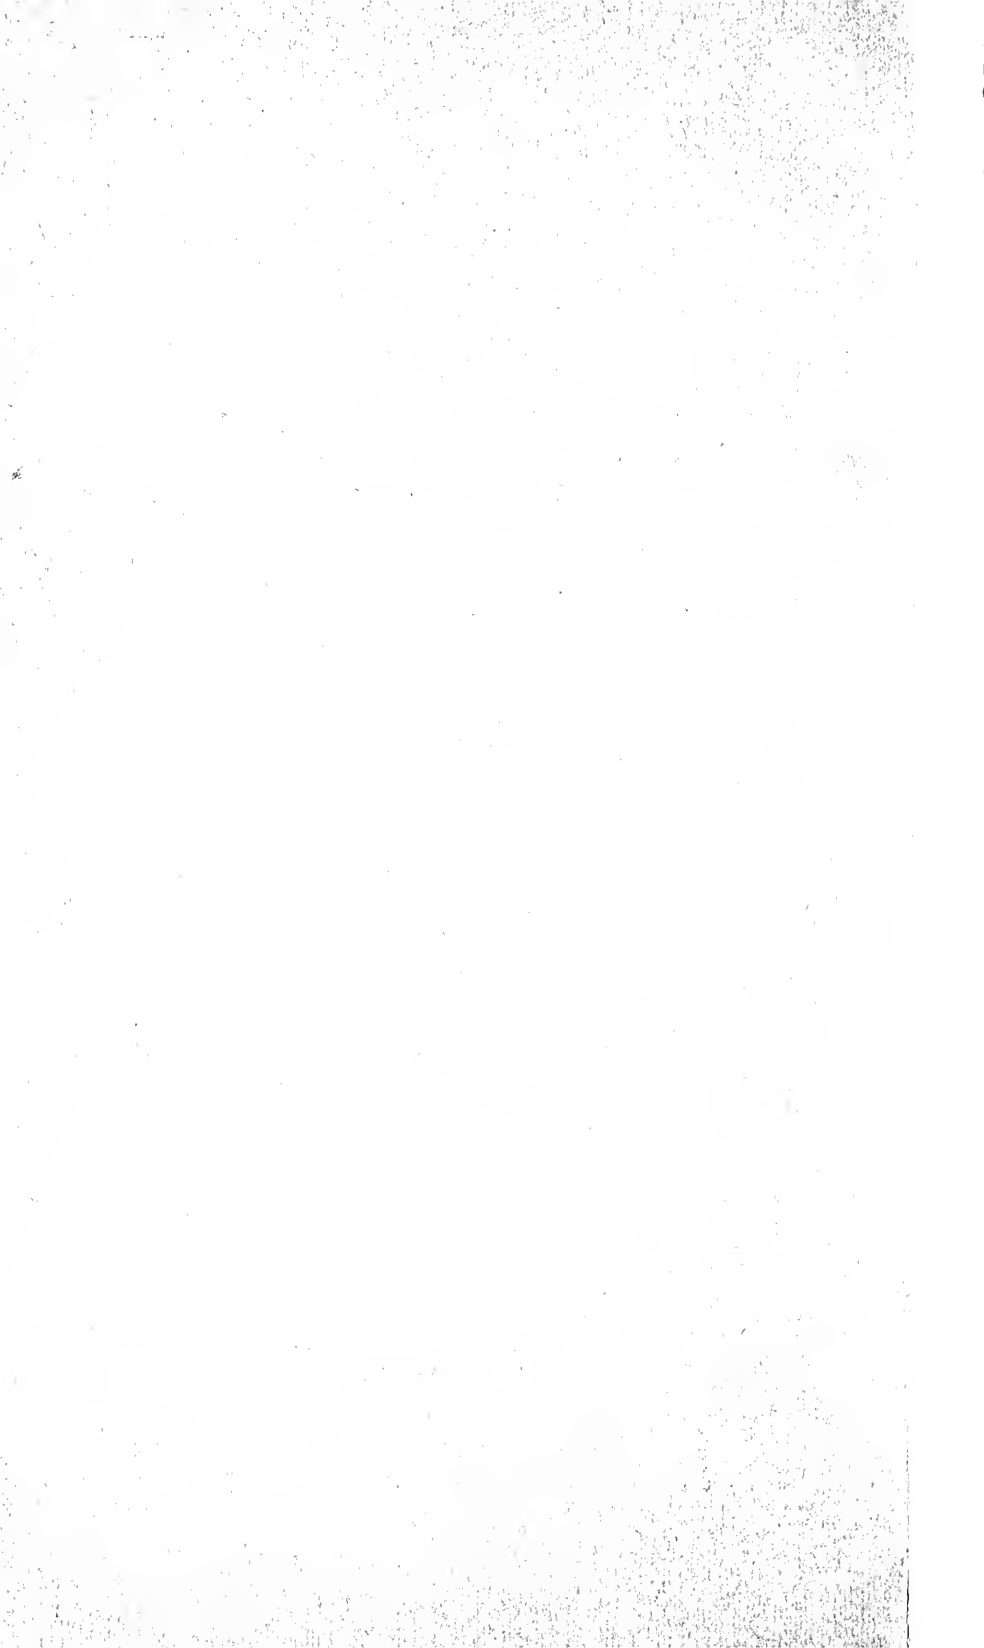

OF CONWAY, MASS.

BY THE REV. EDWIN B. RICE, M.A.

NEW YORK CITY—1909

Church at Berkhamstead, England, where children of Edmund Rice were baptized from 1628 to 1638.

EDMUND RICE.

Our first ancestor in this country was Edmund Rice, who came from England in the year 1638 or 39, and settled at Sudbury, Mass. He was born about 1594, according to a deposition of his on the court files at Cambridge, Mass., which states that he was 62 years old on April 3, 1656. No one has yet been able to get the slightest trace of his parents, or of his ancestors, or where he lived prior to his coming to Berkhamsted, England. He was living in that town from 1628 to 1638, as the following letter shows:

The Rectory, Berkhamsted, England,
December 13, 1906.

TO THE REV. EDWIN B. RICE,
New York City:

With regard to your genealogy, I have searched the Register of Baptisms from 1638 to 1600 and came across the baptisms of the following children of Edmund Rice. But there is no trace of his baptism, and beyond, the writing is very illegible and almost wants an expert. It is quite clear that Edmund Rice lived here at that time, although the name is written with an old-fashioned s, thus Rife, I expect it is the same name differently spelt. I enclose the dates of baptisms, and it is curious no mention is made of his wife. Trusting this will interest you.

Yours very truly,

H. CONSTABLE CURTIS,
Rector of Berkhamsted.

Here follows the transcript:

BAPTISMS.

March 9, 1628, Lydia, daughter of Edmund Rice.
Feb. 28, 1630, Matthew (?), son of Edmund Rice.
Nov. 1, 1632, James (?), son of Edmund Rice.
Nov. 12, 1635, Samuel, son of Edmund Rice.
March 14, 1638, Joseph, son of Edmund Rice.

Owing to the great difficulty of reading the ancient writing, Mr. Curtis was not sure of the names Matthew and James, and so questioned them. Matthew is no doubt correct. James, however, may be the Daniel Rice, son of Edmund Rice, who died November 10, 1632, according to the Record of Deaths.

No record has yet been found in regard to the date of his leaving England for America, on what ship he sailed, though it may have been on the bark Susan and Ellen, which was in commission at that time, and brought many of his contemporaries to Boston. He probably left England soon after the baptism of his son Joseph, in 1638, with his wife Tamazine and children, and upon arrival settled at Sudbury, Mass. There are certain court records that show that he was in this country in 1638-39. In the year 1639 a company of fifty-four persons came to Sudbury, then a wilderness inhabited by Indians, for the purpose of settling the town, and that among them was Edmund Rice. Again another record states that on July 4, 1639, he was appointed by the colonial government, with seven others, to apportion lands to the inhabitants according to their estates and persons.

That he was a man of some merit and was held in high esteem by his contemporaries, is evident from the fact that in 1640 he was chosen deputy for the town; served as selectman in 1644; deputy again 1652-54; appointed magistrate in 1641, and authorized to solemnize marriages; and in 1648 made deacon of the church, an office that in those days was held in the highest esteem.

His wife, Tamazine, died June 13, 1654, and in March of the following year he married Mercie Brigham, widow of Thomas Brigham, who bore him two daughters.

Edmund lived until May 3, 1663, when he died and was buried in Sudbury, leaving eight sons and three daughters, all of whom lived to a ripe old age.

(12) BENJAMIN RICE, son of Ebenezer and Anna (Rice) Rice, was born at Westboro, Mass., February 2, 1745, and with his parents removed to Conway some time after 1756; he subsequently removed to Northboro, where he was probably living at the time of his marriage, according to the records at Westboro. He married, November 25, 1775, Sarah, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Wright) Green, of Westboro; she was born at Westboro May 18, 1748. She was a sister of Mary Green, who married Joseph Rice, twin brother of Benjamin. Both families removed to Conway after their marriage. Both these brothers served as soldiers in the Revolution, Benjamin being drafted from the field while at work. He appears with the rank of a private on muster and pay rolls of Captain Benjamin Phillips' Company, Lieutenant-Colonel Timothy Robinson's Regiment, Hampshire Co. He enlisted January 11, 1777, and was discharged April 1, 1777; marched to Ticonderoga. It appears on a certificate of service dated North Fort Edward, April 16, 1777, that Benjamin Rice enlisted for three months in Captain Phillips' Company, Colonel Timothy Robinson's Regiment; was disabled March 26, 1777. This company was mustered by Captain Phillips of Deerfield, Conway and adjacent towns, and marched to Ticonderoga and Fort Edwards, the headquarters of General Schuyler, who was in command of the Northern forces.

After his discharge from the army Benjamin returned to Conway, and devoted the rest of his life to farming. He was an active member of the Baptist Church in that town, and lived to a ripe old age. The date of his death is not known.

She was born June 8, 1785; died April 7, 1863; he died April 26, 1862. Both were interred in the cemetery at Conway, but no stone marks their last resting place. He was a farmer, and was the only one of three sons that continued to live in Conway after reaching manhood. His two brothers, Ebenezer and Elijah, by a quit-claim deed, relinquished their rights to their father's farm, and left all to Benjamin, who remained in Conway and occupied the old homestead. The site of the homestead was pointed out to the Rev. E. B. Rice on a visit there in July, 1907, by the great-grandson of Benjamin, Lewis F. Rice, now of Ashfield, Mass. All that is left is a part of the cellar wall, and this mostly covered by earth and grass. The farm is now in the possession of Mrs. Henry Lee, daughter of Joel G. Rice, who was a son of Benjamin. Benjamin was a deacon in the Baptist Church, as was his father before him, and he was held in high esteem by the citizens of Conway. He served in the War of 1812.
